

THEATER FOR THE NEW CITY

TNC HOUSE RULES UPDATED 4/10/2019

Dear Production,

Welcome to Theater for the New City. We're glad to have your production taking place at our theater. Please treat the premises as you would treat your home, with care and respect.

TNC is a non-profit theater organization that produces plays, helps artists, and celebrates performance culture through festivals and other events.

Our space is divided into 4 theater spaces. The Joyce and Seward Johnson Theater usually called "The Johnson", the Cino, the Cabaret, and the Community Space.

We operate differently than most theaters in NYC. We have an open door policy that is based on mutual respect. That means our gallery space and lobby are usually open between 10am and 10pm. We have wireless Internet in the lobby, which you may use for light research. If you need to have a small meeting with your cast or crew, please come drop by and hang out in the lobby. These meetings do not need to be scheduled, as long as they are not during our peak hours (5 to 9pm Thurs-Sat, 12-5pm Sun).

Because of the freedom TNC allows for the nurturing of artists, it can get hectic at the theater. Please read and follow our House Rules below. This will help your production run as smooth as possible.

The best way to get familiar with our theater is to hang out and get to know the many faces that frequent our space and help make the theater run. It can be a little confusing, so this document should help clear things up.

Before your show can properly be produced, please take note of these house rules and rules for promotion of your production.

YOU MUST READ AND ADHERE TO THESE RULES IN ORDER TO OPEN YOUR PRODUCTION ON SCHEDULE.

Thank you, we hope you have a fabulous and rewarding show!

If you have additional performances scheduled outside of these times, please note that the Technical Director will not be present.

B. You have the right to arrive in your theater space 2 hours before your show starts.

C. Post signs on all exit doors to your theater space to avoid someone walking in during your performance (there are people working at TNC all the time.)

D. Do not start your show later than 15 minutes after scheduled curtain.

THEATER FOR THE NEW CITY

E. A curtain speech must be given before the performance in accordance with fire code. Our House Manager will make this speech. Productions are not allowed to make their own house speeches, as TNC's House Speech will include an audience request for the funding of our programs.

III. MAINTENANCE

A. You must clean up after yourselves. Your theater space should be clean after your rehearsals and performances. That means no waste, food or scraps left behind. No programs left on the floor. Trash bags can be put in the trash room in the rear of the lobby next to the staircase. Mops are available for use; please contact the House Manager or Tech Director if you are in need of one.

B. Recycling: Bottles and cans should be empty and thrown out in the proper recycling bins.

C. If you damage anything, please notify us immediately.

THEATER FOR THE NEW CITY

IV. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

A. REACHING OUT: Every email concerning Crystal or Emily should be cc'd to Jonathan Weber, Administrative Director. This will ensure that your requests have been addressed.

B. CONTACT SHEET: A company contact sheet must be turned in to Jonathan Weber or Emily Pezzella 3 weeks before your show opens. This should include your cast/crew/producers names, phone numbers and emails.

C. TICKET PRICES: Our Ticket Prices go from Free to $18. Most shows have ticket prices of $10, $12 or $15. We like most shows to sell $10 tickets, but if your show is going to charge over $18 a ticket, you must have one performance a week Pay-What-You-Can. Please coordinate with Crystal Field regarding your ticket costs.

D. TICKETING: Online ticketing is handled via SmartTix.com. TNC has an agreement with SmartTix and all productions (rentals excluded) must use SmartTix for their online ticket sales. There are no exceptions. You must provide the following information by e-mail to Jonathan Weber and Sophia Dumasig so they can set up your show: Performance Schedule, Ticket Price, Approximate Length of show, intermission time, Press Agent (if applicable), and if you would like to set up a discount code. TNC will not list more than 50% of the house for sale via SmartTix so as to accommodate Walk-up sales and complimentary tickets. If you wish to do otherwise, you must tell Jonathan, Sophia, Emily and the Box Office Coordinator, Bill Bradford, what you plan to do in advance.

E. COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS: Generally, we allow each show to offer two complimentary tickets to each performer/production staff member for the run of the show, and offer $5 tickets to friends and family. If you wish to handle this differently, it is OK. If you wish to offer tickets to other services such as Goldstar or TDF, you may do so. TDF tickets can be set up through Jonathan Weber or Sophia Dumasig. If you wish to paper your house, we can offer tickets to our large Free Ticket Program, as well as to papering services such as Audience Extras or Play-by-Play. If you would like to do this, you must specify how many tickets you would like to offer and how you would like us to offer them no later than Tuesday of your performance week. Whatever you choose to do, you must meet with Emily Pezzella so we do not oversell or over comp the house. If you are compiling a list of production comps internally, you must give your list to Bill Bradford 1 hour before the performance.
